Dear Willamette Writers Member,

Thank you for being a part of Willamette Writers! We hope you have enjoyed being a member this year, and we want to help you continue to find your community, develop your craft, and advance your career.

To renew your membership, please log onto willamettewriters.org/account. This is the quickest way to renew your membership or make changes to your membership. If you have any difficulties accessing your online account, please send us an email at wilwrite@willamettewriters.org, and we can help you get connected. You may also print out this renewal letter, fill it out, and send it, along with a check, to Willamette Writers (address listed above). Renewal costs are included below.

As a volunteer-run organization, we thank you for continuing to support Willamette Writers. We look forward to seeing you at our events in the future, and at our 2018 Conference (August 2nd-5th 2018). Please contact us at wilwrite@willamettewriters.org if you have any questions or concerns.

Thank you, and happy writing!
